

Point size scales with the number of certified reports that month. Grey columns mark months with no certified value reported.

